Finally, A Workforce Partner That Measures Success the Way You Do.

10 SKILLS

You know the statistic. 60% of high school graduates aren't prepared for sustainable careers.

You see it every day when students ask what comes next andexisting programs offer little more than job boards and resumetemplates.

Legacy Education Center changes that equation. We become your co-architect in student success, delivering measurable outcomes through our data-driven 10 Commandments of Workforce Skills Training framework.

Our approach aligns directly with employer demands while honoring the dignity and potential of every student.

What sets us apart:

- Proven Employment Maturity development, not just job placement
- Regional labor market alignment through our Workforce Synergy Triangle
- Comprehensive support from soft skills to home ownership guidance
- Transparent tracking and reporting for stakeholder accountability
- Long-term success metrics that prove transformation, not just transactions

Your students deserve pathways that lead somewhere real.

Your institution deserves a partner that delivers results you can measure and defend.

What If Your Next Hire Stayed 3x
Longer and Performed 2x Better?
Question: How much does it cost you every time a new hire quits in the first year?
If you're like most Campbell County employers, the answer is somewhere between $15,000 and $35,000 peremployee when you factor in recruitment, onboarding, training, lost productivity, and cultural disruption.Now multiply that by every position you fill annually.
The real cost isn't the hiring. It's the turnover driven by candidates who lack Employment Maturity—that combination of character, mindset, and professionalism that separates reliable contributors from warm bodies.
Legacy Education Center graduates are different.
They've mastered:
- Communication that builds trust with teams and customers
- Responsibility that requires minimal supervision
- Critical thinking that solves problems proactively
- Professionalism that strengthens your culture
- Initiative that drives continuous improvement
- And because our Home Ownership program anchors them to the community, they stay longer, invest deeper, and grow with your company.
The result? Measurable ROI through reduced turnover, faster productivity, and cultural alignment that compounds over time.
Let's discuss how Legacy Education Center can become your strategic talent partner for your business.

REVENUE ROAR!
